PART II.

NOTIFICATIONS BY GOVT. OF INDIA, RESIDENT, CHIEF COURT, &c.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

Civil Side.

Addendum, dated 29th June 1896, to Rule of Practice No. 48, dated 30*th May* 1883.

The Chief Court directs that the following paras be added to the Rules in respect of records sent for from Courts and documents produced from public offices, under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, contained in Rule of Practice No. 48, dated 30th May 1883.

9. The production of original public documents or official papers shall, as far as is practicable, be dispensed with, and the parties be required to obtain and file copies thereof in their stead, unless it appears that the production of the original is really necessary.

10. Applications made by parties calling for original documents should not be complied with unless it appears that the request is reasonable, that it is made in good faith, and not with a view to avoiding delay or payment of the charges for authenticated copies. By calling for the original documents considerable inconvenience may be caused to the Court or office which has to produce the same, and, in the case of valuable documents, risk may be incurred, which it is desirable, if possible, to avoid.

11. No Court shall keep a public record longer than a week, and, as a rule, such records shall not be kept at all, but returned immediately after perusal to the officer who produced them.

By Order,

V. A. RAJARATNA MUDALIAR,
Registrar.

2. All tenders to be superscribed as follows :—

"Tenders for collecting dry and decaying (hombasi) sandal trees to the koti" and to be accompanied by currency notes to the value of Rs. 50 (fifty) for each koti, which will be returned if the tender is rejected.

3. Tenders to be addressed to the District Forest officer, Shimoga, where they will be received up to 12 noon of the 15th July 1896.

4. Each tender should specify the lowest rate per ton for uprooting, preparing and carting from each hobli as follows :—

(1) For dry and decayed sandalwood trees, including old stumps and roots left in the ground.
(2) For decaying mature trees, known as hombasi, about half of the tree being dry.

5. The contractor will be bound to give 2 cwts. per ton, i. e., 10 per cent free of charge in excess of the actual quantity brought to accounts on account of wastage and dryage.

6. The contractor shall be required to conform strictly to such rules and regulations as may be laid down by the District Forest officer regarding selection of trees, their up-rootal, preparation and carting.

7. Branch pieces containing more than one inch of heartwood should not be left in the jungles, but carted to the kotis with the bark on them without any rough preparation. For such branches carting charges only will be paid. Powder and chips containing heartwood should be delivered with the sandalwood.

8. The successful tenderers will be required to up-root, prepare and cart the sandalwood to kotis in such monthly instalments as may be fixed by the District Forest officer, failing which, they will be liable to any penalty the District Forest officer may fix.

9. The successful tenderer will be bound to execute a bond within a week from the date on which acceptance of the tender is made known to him and to deposit a further sum of Rs. 100 as security for the due fulfilment of his contract. In the event of his failing to fulfil any of the conditions of his contract the security amount will be forfeited to Government.

10. The District Forest officer does not bind himself to accept any or the lowest tender, and such acceptance will be subject to the approval of the Deputy Commissioner of the district and confirmation by the Conservator of Forests.
